Studio 180 Dance Faculty performs for Key School in Annapolis

Ellicott City, MD (July 2008) – Wednesday, July 23, three of the faculty members of Studio 180 Dance—owner/artistic director/dancer, Katie Carpenter; ballerina/aerialist , Brooke; and aerialist/dancer, Meghan --- performed for the Key School in Annapolis. Studio 180 Dance is new to Annapolis, Maryland this summer.

"We were so delighted to have the opportunity to perform for the Key School students and faculty. Ms. Flanagan was wonderful, and we are so happy to have been invited."
Katie Carpenter

Studio 180 Dance offers instruction in the traditional disciplines of ballet, pointe, tap, jazz, modern, hip hop, and lyrical as well as aerial dance; hosts a competitive dance team; and a professional company for adult dancers. Studio 180 Dance welcomes all dancers, beginner through professional levels, child through adult. Dancers are placed by age and ability level, starting with Baby Aerial classes for parent & child, 2-3 and 4 years old, and preparatory classes in all disciplines for 5 and 6 year olds.

Also opening this fall, Annapolis Dancewear is located at 131B Gibralter Avenue. Annapolis Dancewear will carry a complete line of dancewear and will stock gear and costumes specific to the requirements of individual dance studios, cheerleading squads, teams, and liturgical groups. For more information visit www.annapolisdancewear.com .

Classes at Studio 180 Dance begin September 8. Registration is now open. For more information, to schedule a performance, and to register, please visit www.studio180dance.com or call 443.812.9386.

The faculty invites you to join them for the Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting, 10 am Monday, September 8. The Studio 180 Dance faculty will also be performing August 5 for Annapolis Park and Rec, August 19 for Anne Arundel County Fitness Day, and September 7 on West Street for the First Sunday festival. Watch for Open House announcements after fall classes begin.
