

Studio180 Instructor performs in Annapolis High School's Nutcracker!

Studio180 instructor and performer Meghan Carpenter will dance the part of Sugar Plum Fairy in Annapolis High School's production of "The Nutcracker." AHS' second annual production of "The Nutcracker" showcases actors from the AHS Theater department, directed by Edwin Hall, and members of the AHS Dance Company, directed by Jillian Barber. The show will run December 5th at 7:00pm, December 6th at 2:00pm and 8:00pm, and December 8th at 2:00pm in the Annapolis High School Auditorium. Tickets are $8 each with children under the age of 3 being admitted free. Tickets can be reserved by emailing jbarber@aacps.org. This unique Nutcracker production combines both acting and dancing to excite all of the audience's senses. Barber thrives in bringing arts to her students and "chose to ask for guest artists from Studio180 because [she] wants the audience to see a local, professional level of dancing, and to show them...what is available to them in their own community."

Studio180 Dance is devoted to redefining the way that the community at large views dance as a fitness activity. Like Carpenter's participation in AHS' production of "The Nutcracker," we encourage all of our dancers to think of themselves as athletes and to work as a team through collaborative growth!

Classes run Monday – Friday 1:30-9/9:30pm
Saturday 9am-3:30pm

www.studio180dance.com
410-268-5299 (JAZZ)